to El Paso about Feb 4.
Mr. Martinez was appointed chairman of the Panama-Pacific exposition committee to visit the South American countries and invite these countries to participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition. The appointment was made by president Wilson and Mr. Martinez left here on Sept. 19. He visited the canal zone and from there went on the tour of the South American countries.
He visited them all except Ecuador, where yellow fever had broken out, and it would have been necessary for the commission to go into quarantine.
The commission succeeded in persunding Chili, Uruguay and Peru to reverse their decision not to have an exhibit at the San Francisco fair, and succeeded in getting the promine of the president of Chile to attend the fair in person. Venezuela was undecided whether or not to make an exhibit.
After the visit of the commission $250,000 was voted to make the exhibit.
The commission was well received in all of the Latin American countries and accomplished the purpose for which it was appointed. The greater part of the trip was made on the cruiser Birmingham.

Mr. Martinez was accompanied by
